JAY MOSELEY HEAD COACH

FIRST SEASON
AUBURN '08

Jay Moseley took the reins of Ohio State Men's Golf, becoming the program's 11th head coach, on July 9, 2015.

During the last six years, Moseley lifted Kennesaw State University to new heights unreachable prior to his arrival. Moseley guided the Owls to five consecutive NCAA Regional appearances and a pair of trips to the NCAA Championships. Taking over a program which had never advanced to postseason play, Moseley steered the Owls to the 2011 NCAA Championships in just his second season at the helm.

Moseley added another program 'first' this past season, guiding Kennesaw State into the GCAA Top-25 Poll for the first time ever and concluded the year ranked No. 27 nationally. The team's ascension into the national Top-25 came on the strength of tournament titles at the Rees Jones Invitational (Sept. 21-23) and Pinetree Intercollegiate (Oct. 20-21) accompanied by second-place showings at the Jones Invitational (Feb. 23-24) and the Atlantic Sun Conference Championships (Apr. 19-21). In total, Moseley's teams captured 13 tournament crowns during his time in Georgia.

Moseley's charges finished in the top-30 nationally in 2011 and 2014, placing 26th at both NCAA Championships. The 2014 Owls claimed runner-up honors at the NCAA Auburn Regional to earn their spot in the nation's final 30 teams vying for a national title. Moseley's first campaign at Kennesaw State also included participation in NCAA action as then-sophomore Jeff Karlsson qualified for the 2010 NCAA Southeast Regional as an individual.

In addition to unprecedented team success achieved under the direction of Moseley, Kennesaw State brought home a heap of individual hardware as well. Since 2009-10, Owl golfers have been tabbed the Atlantic Sun Conference (A-Sun) Golfer of the Year twice, A-Sun Scholar-Athlete of the Year thrice, All-Southeast Region selections six times, All-A-Sun performers 14 times and Karlsson gathered Golf Coaches Association of America (GCAA) All-America Second Team honors in 2011. Moseley received direct recognition in '11 as well, named the A-Sun Coach of the Year.

In six conference tournaments, Kennesaw State finished no worse than third place en route to three runner-up efforts and the first Atlantic Sun conference crown (2011) in team history.

Academic accolades also rolled in for Moseley's pupils, highlighted by Ben Greene and Peder Lunde Hermansson becoming the Owls' first Academic All-America recipients (2013). The KSU pair completed their academic careers with 4.0 grade-point averages, and Greene was the first of three Owls named A-Sun Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year under Moseley. Overall during the Moseley Era, eight Kennesaw State student-athletes were placed on the All-America Scholar Team and nine tabbed A-Sun All-Academic squad.

His program corralled NCAA Multi-Year APR Special Recognition with a perfect score of 1000. The Owls maintained a team GPA above 3.0 all six years of Moseley's tenure and exceeded 3.5 in both 2012 and 2013 to garner GCAA President's Special Recognition Academic Awards.

Moseley's recruiting prowess is evidenced by five A-Sun All-Freshman Team members and the 2014 A-Sun Freshman of the Year, Teremoana Beaucousin.

Prior to taking over the Kennesaw State program as a 24-year old, Moseley spent six years at Auburn University. The four-year letterwinner and three-year captain played for the Tigers from 2004-08 before serving as a graduate assistant for the 2008-09 season.

Moseley competed in 42 events during his career and still holds the all-time Auburn record for lowest 36-hole score (132, -12) at the 2006 John Burns Intercollegiate. His 14-under 202 54-hole total in the event was also an all-time mark at the time and is currently ranked third in Tiger lore.

He enjoyed his finest collegiate season in 2007-08, picking up Golfweek All-America Third Team and First Team All-Southeastern Conference laurels. His 71.83 stroke average that season ranks as the eighth-best in Auburn history, racking up 18 sub-par rounds (second-most) along the way. Moseley secured his second All-America Scholar recognition (2007, 2008) as well.

Moseley became the first-ever golfer to win the prestigious Cliff Hare Award, presented annually to an Auburn student-athlete who excels in athletic and scholarship achievement as well as showing a great degree of leadership, integrity and courage. He received a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in higher education administration with a sports management minor.

He and his wife, Kelly, welcomed their first child, James Brown Moseley III, also known as Tripp, on June 2, 2015.

BRAD SMITH

ASSISTANT COACH

OHIO STATE, '11

Brad Se Nation from 2007-11 before graduating Summa Cum Laude (3.95 cumulative GPA) with a business administration degree majoring in finance. On the course, Smith pushed Ohio State to a fifth-place effort at the 2011 NCAA Championships by placing 17th overall individually. He picked up Second Team All-Big Ten and PING Midwest All-Region accolades that season after tying All-American Bo Hoag with a team-best 72.63 stroke average in 36 rounds played.

The Peru, Ind., native was also honored as the Big Ten Golfer of the Week on two occasions. The second such recognition came in March '11 following Smith's individual medalist performance at the FAU Spring Break Championship.

Smith was an all-around student-athlete, receiving praise academically and from the OSU strength and conditioning staff as well. He picked up ESPN Academic All-America Second Team laurels as a senior to go along with three Academic All-Big Ten and four OSU Scholar-Athlete designations. Smith received admission into the Buckeye Power Club, a distinction presented to just one student-athlete annually from each team who exemplifies specific qualities in the weight room – leadership ability, work ethic, winning attitude, attendance and ability to follow instructions.

Brad and his wife, Carmen, have been married since August 2010 and reside in New Albany with their two daughters, Scarlett (3) and Linden (1). His uncle, Chris Smith, was a 2000 inductee into the OSU Athletics Hall of Fame. Chris was First Team All-American in 1991 and the Big Ten's Player of the Year and medalist in 1990.

Ohio State has hosted the Robert Kepler Intercollegiate every year but two since the 1969 season. The Buckeyes welcomed 14 teams to 2015 version of the 44th-annual Kepler Intercollegiate in April on the challenging par 71, 7,455-yard Scarlet Course at The OSU Golf Club, voted the top collegiate golf course in November 2009 by GolfChannel.com.

In 2007, the Kepler Intercollegiate returned to the Scarlet Course after breaking from it the year before while the course was being redesigned under the tutelage of golf legend Jack Nicklaus. The Scarlet Course has been the host course for the event 41 times in 44 years.

The tournament is named for the late Robert Kepler, who served as Ohio State's golf coach from 1938 until 1965.

Under Kepler, Ohio State built a golfing tradition which was enhanced by an NCAA team championship in 1945 and four NCAA individual championships. One of the later winners was Jack Nicklaus, now universally recognized as the greatest golfer the game has ever known.

Since its inception, the Kepler has been won by only a dozen schools – Colorado, Eastern Michigan, Georgia Tech, Indiana, Illinois, Kent State, Louisville, Miami (Ohio), Northwestern, Ohio State, UNLV and Xavier.

The Buckeyes have hoisted the tournament champion trophy 23 times in the 44-year history of The Kepler Intercollegiate, including six-consecutive victories from 1974-79 and nine-consecutive from 1981-1989. In-state rival Kent State ranks second with five team victories while fellow Big Ten schools, Indiana and Northwestern, are tied for third-place with four team crowns each.

Ohio State has also taken individual medalist honors 21 times, with Frederik Hammer being the most recent in 2014.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Members of the media interested in obtaining tournament credentials should contact Kyle Kuhlman in the Athletics Communications office at 614-292-0088. In addition, media interested in attending a practice session should contact Kuhlman in advance.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Media wishing to conduct interviews with any member of the Ohio State men's golf team should contact Kyle Kuhlman to arrange the appointment. Please call/email at least one day in advance to allow setup time.

ROAD REQUESTS

Please direct all credential requests for Ohio State's road events to the host school's sports information director.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photo credentials are issued for Ohio State golf tournaments. No flash photography or strobe use is permitted without prior approval.

TOURNAMENT MEDIA SERVICES

Pairings will be made available to the media prior to each round. Results will be distributed to the media about 30 minutes following the conclusion of the tournament. Any additional requests should be directed to Kyle Kuhlman.

POST-TOURNAMENT PROCEDURES

Post-tournament interviews will begin 10 minutes after the round ends. Players and coaches will be available in front of the Ohio State Leaderboard. A member of the OSU Athletics Communications Office will assist with interviews.
